Walden Businesses Receives 2011 Best of Business Atlanta Award

ATLANTA, December 2011. Walden Businesses, Inc. is honored to receive the 2011 Best of Business Atlanta award by the SBCA Community.

Walden Businesses is a prominent southeastern mergers and acquisitions firm based in Atlanta, GA specializing in representing the owners of privately held manufacturing, distribution and business to business service companies. Chet Walden, President of Walden Businesses, received the Award on behalf of his firm.

The Small Business Commerce Association Community is dedicated to helping people understand that running a business is an obtainable goal and that everyone should have an opportunity to live their dreams. It recognizes and awards business owners that don't often receive the recognition they deserve. Business owners are role models for everyone – whether they realize it or not. SBCA Community 2011 Best of Business Award winners are a valuable asset to their community and exemplify small business entrepreneurship.

The Small Business Community Association is dedicated to collecting and organizing information, training, and services that are vital to small business owners, entrepreneurs, and anyone else needing assistance managing their business. Its mission is to promote a vibrant and growing small business community in three key areas:

- Growth: to assure a vibrant and growing small business community, with the goal to introduce, engage and mature the next generation of small business owners.
- Advocacy: to support education and action outside the small business community in order to extend and preserve the future of small businesses.
- Compassion: to use the gifts within the small business community to serve others for the betterment of its communities, and the world.
